RE: Business License – Immigration Compliance Affidavit.

Please find the attached Bill for business license renewal, removing the required submission of annual immigration compliance affidavit. For a number of years, this requirement has been in place. However after staff investigation, it has been determined that it is the Attorney General who shall enforce that law. It appears the City is not required to have this, as the State would request identity information from the employer if it feels workers are in violation. The state or a court would then direct Cameron to suspend the business license until the employer complies with the State law.

Options:

1. Approve the Bill as submitted;
2. Keep current licensing requirements unchanged.
