Re: Economic Development Agreement with Chamber of Commerce

Issue:

The Council and the Chamber have been working together during this past year to further economic development in Cameron. This agreement provides $36,000 a year to the Chamber to fund the hiring of a professional development firm to prepare an economic development plan and to perform such other activities as may arise and be assigned by the Chamber. It further continues the appointment of the Mayor, the Mayor Pro Temp and the City Manager as members of the Chamber's committee performing economic development. This agreement largely continues the agreement from past years but has been thoroughly reviewed and updated by the Chamber and City Staff.

Recommendation:

Staff recommends approval.
