Municipal Judge. This was a short week given that we had the Veteran's Day Holiday on Monday. But we did have the pleasure of transitioning from our municipal judge of many years, Judge Shull to our incoming judge, Judge Fann, at court on Tuesday night.

Randy Curnow Dealership. The efforts to bring this dealership expansion to a realization continue. We are working almost daily to overcome the difficulties. Right now we are working on the right of way issue and the dealership's desire to be able to move closer to Baldwin Street.

Great Northwest Wholesale Water Commission. The Great Northwestern Wholesale Water Commission (GNWWC) met on Thursday and the major issue was acquisition of the remaining easements. We are engaged in conversations about the City agreeing to advance funds to the GNWWC to help move this project forward.
