

Proclamation

Recognizing Eric Wallace in His efforts to attain the rank of Eagle Scout

Whereas, Eric Wallace, son of Gracie Wallace of Cameron, Missouri, began his scouting career as a Cub Scout; and then advanced to become a Boy Scout; and,

Whereas, Eric is striving to achieve the highest advancement rank in The Boy Scouts of America, that of Eagle Scout, and has expended much time and effort in pursuing and accomplishing the necessary requirements for 52 merit badges toward this prestigious award with his membership in Scout Troop 87; and,

Whereas, The Boy Scouts of America program promotes and develops responsibility with over 150 hours of community service and leadership skills, and to that end, Eric has served Troop 87 as Den Chief and as a Warrior in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say; and,

Whereas, Eric has distinguish himself as recipient of the Arrow of Light, The God and Country and World Conservation Awards, and

Whereas, Eric has demonstrated outstanding initiative, competence and success in his recent Community Service Project, consisting of a lower window replacement at The Old School building in Cameron, Missouri, and

Whereas, the Community Service Project chosen by Eric has improved the energy efficiency of The Old School building where children and adults alike enhance their education.

Now, therefore, I, Everett W. Ice, Mayor of the City of Cameron, Clinton and DeKalb Counties, Missouri do here by recognize for his outstanding efforts in achieving the rank of Eagle Scout and in particular, his thoughtfulness for others, as demonstrated by his efforts in replacing the lower windows of The Old School building in Cameron, Missouri for all to enjoy.

Eric Wallace

In witness whereof, I have caused the seal of the City of Cameron to be affixed on this 19th day of October 2009.

Mayor Everett W. Ice

Attest:

City Clerk