- *Failure to provide a State of Missouri NO TAX DUE Statement dated within 90 days of renewal or additional information for your specific occupation type will result in an incomplete application and will be returned. All forms are available on our website www.cameronmo.com.

No license will be issued unless you comply with all City Ordinances, including but not limited to, Zoning Regulations, Nuisance Ordinances and Fire Codes. Also, you must not be delinquent in the payment of Real Estate or Personal Property Taxes. This license is issued only for the applicant, business location(s), and business description shown hereon. Change of business type or location during business license year will require review by City of Cameron staff.

Each applicant for a license agrees to allow the City to inspect his/her place of business prior to issuance of the license and thereafter to determine if license is in compliance. Any licensed business found to be in violation of a City Ordinance is subject to license suspension and/or revocation.
